DEMOCRATIC RALLY.

Taylor County People
Gather At Campbellsville and Hear

Stirring Speeches Delivered by a Number of Prominent Speakers.
A SOBER AND ORDERLY CROWD.

The speaking at Campbellsville, last Saturday, had been thoroughly advertised, and early in the forenoon the people from all sections began to arrive in town, and by 12 o'clock fully two thousand untimely Democrats were upon the streets. The two principal streets were paraded in the forenoon, five hundred men being upon horseback in the procession, besides several scores of buggies. It was a thrilling sight, testifying that the Democrats of Taylor county were thoroughly aroused and would do their duty on the Sixth of November.
Sixteen young ladies, dressed in white and riding gray horses headed the procession, followed by one young lady dressed in yellow and riding a yellow horse.
It was a beautiful picture, the young ladies being admired by both political friend and foe for their handsome appearance. The Taylor county young ladies are noted for their attractiveness, but to fully appreciate how handsome they really are, you must see them dressed in white, the emblem of innocence, riding gray horses and heading a Democratic procession.
The speaking was at the court-house, a stand having been erected upon the outside, the building being too small to hold the crowd.
Local talent introduced the speakers, and in the forenoon Hon. C. C. McChord and Congressman Dave Smith made telling and forcible speeches. In the afternoon Hon. Ash. G. Caruth, of Louisville, occupied the stand for two and one-half hours, making the speech of the day. He is a sound reasoner and presents his points in such a manner as to impress his hearers with the truthfulness of his assertions.
At the close of Mr. Carruth's speech Hon. W. P. Thorne, of Henry county, made one of his characteristic talks to the delight of all present. If there was a disturbance during the day it did not come under our observation. For the size of the crowd it was remarkably orderly, a compliment to Campbellsville and Taylor county. Last year the Republicans carried Taylor county by about 70 majority, but if there is any thing in a demonstration her vote this year will be in the Democratic column.
DEMOCRATIC SPEAKING.
The following gentlemen will speak in Adair county as the dates appear:

A full report of the co-operation meeting, held at Mt. Pleasant, was received too late for this week. It will appear in our next issue.
The News will not be published next week until Wednesday. By holding over we will be able to furnish our readers with the result of the election.
If you want a life insurance policy that will cost you less money, give the same protection and pay higher dividends than any other company, call on W. D. Jones.
We were in error last week in stating that the Metcalfe circuit court would be in session this week. It will not commence until the day after the election.
Officers of election should remember that the polls must be opened at 6 o'clock a. m. House Bill, No. 7, containing this change is published in the News this week.
Eld. Z. T. Williams will entertain the people of Columbia and vicinity at the Christian church Sunday night week, his subject being his "Travels in the Holy Land."
Paid list since last issue: T. E. Christie, J. H. Squires, J. L. Kinnaird, J. H. Jinson, Geo. Roberts, E. W. Webb, Turner Bros., I. K. Miller, Jo Frank Strange, J. R. White.
We have just received a stock of "W. B. Erect Form Corset," the latest thing out. RUSSELL & MURRELL.
The co-operation meeting at Mt. Pleasant, last Sunday, was largely attended. There were many interesting reports and several good sermons delivered. A sumptuous dinner was spread upon the ground.
Mr. John Holladay, whose death was recorded in last week's News, died with paralysis of the bowels. He was complaining about one week, but was in bed only two days. His last words were "Let us pray."
Mr. Henry Fulks has purchased the residence of Mr. Geo. Nell, on Greensburg street, known as the Sam Wolford property. The transfer includes one and one eighth acre of ground with the dwelling. Price, $650.
Linsey Fair, charged with detaining a woman in Adair county, was arrested in Lebanon by Chief of Police Nat Wilkerson, last Friday, and brought to Columbia and lodged in jail. The offense was committed several months ago.
A letter from Mr. Anderson Holladay states that he has sold all his mules but twelve. Mr. John Holladay sold three up to the time he was taken sick, and his business is now being looked after by Mr. Anderson Holladay.
Dr. W. B. Armstrong writes us as follows from Cincinnati: "Politics are at a high ebb here, and every thing points to Bryan's election. Unless Hanna uses a barrel of money in this State, Ohio will be found in the Democratic column."

The following is from the Elizabeth-town News, but as it is applicable in all communities afflicted with windy Christians, we reproduce it: A minister of the gospel was once very much disturbed by a member of his congregation who kept interrupting his sermon with Amen and other devout ejaculations. Finally it got so strong that the preacher asked an officer of the church to speak to the brother and see if he could not quiet him. He did so and after that he was as silent as the tomb. After the service the minister asked the officer of the church what he said to the brother that caused him so suddenly to lose his fervor. The officer said I asked him for $5 for the church. "This little incident illustrates the conduct of a great many people in a great many things. They are generally the loudest people to talk and are great enthusiasts until you ask them for money."

The Home Board of New York has written the Trustees of the Columbia M. & F. High School that it will not send a teacher here this school year. Prof. A. H. Ballard, who is giving entire satisfaction, will remain at the head of the institution. It was not the intention of the Board to remove Prof. Ballard in any event, as he is a valuable teacher, liked by both patrons and pupils. If the Board had sent a man, under the arrangement, he would have been in charge, but his duties would not in anywise have interfered with Prof. Ballard. Under the present management the school is flourishing, and parents are advised to send their sons and daughters as quickly as possible, in order that they may get the full benefit of the remainder of this school year. Seventy-eight pupils are now on the roll.

Rev. John G. Huber, pastor of a Dayton, O., congregation of United Brethren, preached to a large congregation at the Methodist church, in Columbia, last Sunday night. His subject was "The Twelve Gates Entering into the Heavenly Home." It was the most interesting discourse delivered in Columbia for many months. His descriptive powers are grand, and in describing the heavenly home you could almost see the golden gates, standing ajar, and the children of God passing into the New Jerusalem.

Last week Mr. Robt. Williams, one of the largest and most progressive farmers in the Dunnville section, lost by fire, a barn together with 125 barrels of corn, 20,000 pounds of hay, 8 or 10 head of mules and horses and farm machinery. Mr. Ed Pelly had 2 mules in the barn that burned. The loss is heavy and no insurance. This is the second barn that has been burned for Mr. Williams. Blood hounds ought to be kept by every county in the State.

The Kentucky Conference of the United Brethren church was in session at Glenville Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Rev. Huber representing Bishop Hott. His work and preaching were highly received and appreciated. Preachers were stationed as follows: Rev. J. Dean, P. E.; Glenville, Chas. R. Dean; Albany, A. R. Blakey; Willis Creek, W. M. Dickie; Edmonton, T. J. Gibson; Liberty and Casey county, Thos. Hadley and S. E. Norman.

Mr. Jesse White, this city, received a letter from his son, Mont, who is in the Philippines, a few days ago. Mont stated that he had been in the hospital at Manila since the 19 day of August, but was improving. His letter was dated September 17. He said that but little fighting had been done on the island for some time, and thought his regiment would leave for the States not later than January.

Mrs. J. W. Coffey, who has been suffering a great deal with one of her hands for several weeks is still in a precarious condition. Her hand and arm up to the elbow is swollen and very painful, while the arm above the elbow is perspiring. All this came from a small hurt on the hand. It seems that medicines will do no good and it is likely that her arm will have to be amputated.

Last week Misses Aetna and High McCallie were driving their trusty buggy horse and for some cause unknown he acted badly, upsetting the survey in which they were engaged. Fortunately both were unhurt, and it is

They are selling at extremely low prices and will give you a bargain. Don't wait till the best furniture has been sold but come at once. Read their advertisement.
Hon. Rollin Hurt spoke at Pellyton last Saturday afternoon, a large crowd of enthusiastic Democrats being present. The Democrats claim that they will carry that precinct, as recruits are dropping into line daily. At night Mr. Hurt was greeted by a large audience at Knifley, and when he closed there was no disaffection.
Call and see my line of men's and boy's clothing and overcoats—by far best line we have ever shown. My Buckeye pants are up to date in fit and style.
W. L. WALKER.
Mr. Sam Bottoms has been doing some good work for the Democratic party in the upper end of the county. It is said that large crowds attend his speakings, and that Sam takes occasion to make some very pointed remarks. It is said that a couple of local Republican speakers who met him a few days ago, were convinced that Sam was on the stump.
